

Naomi Ann Erlewine

August 2009

Contact	4-51-13 Room #121 Shiraitodai, Fuchu City Tokyo 183-0011 JAPAN	naomi@naomiann.com http://naomiann.com/
Biographical Information	Birth: April 11th, 1987, Saint Paul, Minnesota, USA Citizenship: United States and Japan (dual)
Education	International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, expected March 2010 GPA: 4.0 / 4.0 Dean's List 2007–present	September 2007–present
	New York University, New York, NY Piano performance program Dean's List 2005–2007	September 2005–May 2007
Selected Experience	Passo Passo, Ltd., Tokyo, Japan Media Translation Intern Wrote and edited English subtitles and polished English scripts for dubbings of various films, documentaries, and television programs.	April 2008–present
	Concordia Language Villages: Mori no Ike Japanese village, Moorhead, Minnesota Two-week Curriculum Facilitator and Music Program Leader Led linguistic instruction and curriculum development at a Japanese immersion summer camp. Trained and managed a diverse, bilingual staff. Choreographed dances for, organized, and led daily song and dance time.	summer 2008
	Japanese Children's Society Saturday School, New York Volunteer Supported faculty in regular classes and school-wide events at a K-9 Japanese Saturday school.	October 2005–May 2007
Languages	American English: native Japanese: native
Honors	Moritani Foundation Scholarship	April 2008–June 2009
	International Christian University Scholarship	September 2007–present
	New York University Steinhardt Scholarship (Honors Program) Participated in weekly discussion series on "Modernization Here and Abroad." Culminated in research project and one-week trip to Ghana.	September 2005–May 2006